

David and Danielle

David and Danielle are a sweet couple who reside in Tennessee with their dog, Mouse. They live close to family and enjoy spending time with family and friends. In their free time, they enjoy the outdoors, college sports, and cooking together.

David and Danielle look forward to adding to their family and giving unconditional love to a child. They are praying for both the mother and the child that God will bless them with.

David is a supervisor at a local plant. He enjoys reading, playing video games, and sports. He also enjoys the outdoors.

Danielle is currently working on her Masters degree. She enjoys crafting and baking, as well as playing and coaching basketball and softball.
