

Adam and Felicia

Adam and Felicia are a sweet couple who live in Kentucky. They have three beautiful daughters, Callie, Maci, and Rosie. They love spending time together as a family exploring their city, eating at new places, and playing at local playgrounds and splash parks. Faith is an important part of their home and family, and they are very involved in their church. They look forward to adding another child to their fun and loving family, and their daughters look forward to having another sibling!

Adam works at Humana, and is also a DJ. He loves watching football and going to football games, and enjoys reading in his spare time.

Felicia is a cosmetologist. She loves crafting, cooking, and having girls weekends with her mom, sisters, or friends.

Glorify the Lord with me, let us
exalt His name together.
